Updated as of April 6, 2016. The conference hotel has arranged for another 100 rooms for May 1-3 (Sunday night, Monday night, and Tuesday night) at the Rosen Shingle Creek. Guests would then need to transfer to the overflow hotel, the Rosen Plaza, for May 4 and 5 (Wednesday night and Thursday night). WREX 2016 will be providing free coach bus transportation between the hotels so the move should be an easy one. The coach bus can take you and your luggage to the Plaza (about 2.5 miles away) after the Tuesday sessions. Free bus transportation will be provided each day between the two hotels and van transportation will be provided in the evenings.

Please contact the Rosen Reservation line at (866) 996-6338 if this interests you.

Also included for registered conference attendees is free round-trip airport (MCO) transportation to the hotel, 25% discount on food and beverages at the hotel, and free transportation to and from the Rosen Shingle Creek each day. A reduced conference room rate $149 per night, plus a low government rate ($110/night) is still available to conference attendees.
